

International 14 Prince of Wales Cup and 2019 UK National Championships

STEPHEN PARRY, COURSE RACE OFFICER

Stephen is an experienced RYA National Race Officer from Lee-on-Solent SC, who comes to the event from being CRO for the J70 and SB20 classes at Cowes Week. A former Flying Dutchman sailor, he was for 20 years the international class association Vice President Championships during which he organised 30 World and European championships. He was race officer for the Paralympic Classes at four Sail for Gold regattas, their World Championships and their Games in 2012.

He is currently the RYA's South Region Race Management Coordinator, a National Race Officer tutor and sits on the RYA's Race Management Committee.

On an international front he has been race officer at high-profile events such as Antigua Sailing Week and Antigua Classics.

Stephen Parry